

JIM PAUL JOINS BANK OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

San Diego, Calif., April 27, 2017 – Bank of Southern California (OTC Pink: BCAL) announced that Jim Paul has joined the Bank as Vice President, Business Banking at the Del Mar Corporate office. He will primarily focus on building new client relationships for the bank.

Mr. Paul has over twenty-five years of sales and business development experience, building long-term, profitable relationships in new markets both individually and through team efforts. Most recently, Jim was the Vice President of Business Banking at BBVA Compass Bank in Dallas, TX.

“We are pleased to welcome Mr. Paul to San Diego and Bank of Southern California. He is a seasoned relationship banker with a strong track record of originating new business and developing profitable client relationships,” commented Tony DiVita, Executive Vice President and Chief Banking Officer. “As we continue to expand our bank’s business development division, we are excited that we are assembling a team of professionals with such diverse backgrounds, but with a shared focus of providing a high-level client experience,” concluded DiVita.
