FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- REVISED

Bank of Southern California remodels its Ramona branch and welcomes Starbucks

RAMONA, CA.--This summer, Bank of Southern California (OTC Bulletin Board: FBBN) is getting a facelift and a new neighbor in Ramona. The branch office is being completely remodeled, as the current space is being divided to make room for the area's first drive-thru Starbucks that will share the building.

As the only local community bank in Ramona, Bank of Southern California has been serving the Ramona community for 10 years. In fact, the bank started as Ramona National Bank and has continued to expand throughout San Diego county and the Coachella Valley.

"The bank has always been focused on our local community," says Nathan Rogge, President and CEO of the bank. "Our customers are our neighbors and friends. We wouldn't have it any other way."

The remodeling project, which is currently underway, will bring the first standalone, drive-thru Starbucks to the community of Ramona. The bank remodel is expected to be completed this summer, with the Starbucks project scheduled to open sometime in the fall. The branch office is open standard hours during all phases of the remodel.
