

Bank of Southern California Appoints Ann Torrico as Managing Director

San Diego, Calif., September 10, 2018 – Bank of Southern California, N.A. (OTC Pink: BCAL), a community business bank headquartered in San Diego, has announced the appointment of Ann Torrico as Managing Director in Los Angeles. She will be responsible for expanding Bank of Southern California’s market presence by actively seeking new business opportunities in the Greater Los Angeles region with a focus in West Los Angeles and South Bay. Bank of Southern California first entered the Los Angeles market on August 1, 2018 through its successful acquisition of Americas United Bank.

Mrs. Torrico brings nearly 17 years of industry experience with a focus on private client and commercial banking relationships, providing guidance and superior service to help her clients achieve their financial objectives. Most recently, she served as Private Banking Director, Senior Relationship Manager for a well-known regional bank in Manhattan Beach. She holds a bachelor’s degree from the University of Maryland and a Master of Arts from National University in Los Angeles.

“Ann is an accomplished banking professional with strong market knowledge, deep roots, and a long history of delivering custom financial solutions to entrepreneurs, professionals, and small to mid-sized businesses throughout Los Angeles County,” said Tony DiVita, Executive Vice President and Chief Banking Officer. “Ann will be a strong addition to our newly expanded Los Angeles banking team,” concluded DiVita.
