

Bank of Southern California Appoints Gaylin Anderson to Chief Banking Officer

San Diego, Calif., April 8, 2019 – Bank of Southern California, N.A. (OTC Pink: BCAL), a community business bank headquartered in San Diego, has appointed Gaylin Anderson Executive Vice President, Chief Banking Officer. Mr. Anderson previously served as Executive Vice President, Market Executive, and was responsible for the bank’s growth within the newly added Los Angeles and Orange County markets. In his new role, he will lead the company’s business development efforts, portfolio management and customer retention.

“Gaylin has been a valuable member of our executive leadership team since he joined Bank of Southern California in 2018 and played a key role in the acquisition of Los Angeles-based Americas United Bank,” said Nathan Rogge, President and Chief Executive Officer. “I am confident he will continue to be an asset to the organization and will help drive the bank’s organic growth,” concluded Rogge.

About Bank of Southern California

A growing community bank, established in 2001, Bank of Southern California, N.A., with headquarters in San Diego, CA, is locally owned and managed, and offers a range of financial products to individuals, professionals and small-to-medium sized businesses. The Bank’s solution-driven, relationship-based approach to banking provides accessibility to decision makers and enhances value through strong partnerships with its clients. The Bank currently operates ten branches in San Diego County, Los Angeles County, the Coachella Valley in Riverside County, as well as production offices in Orange County and West Los Angeles. For more information, please visit <https://www.banksocal.com> or call (858) 847-4780.

Media Contact:

Amanda Conover

Bank of Southern California

aconover@banksocal.com

858.847.4762

* * *