

Bank of Southern California Hires Juliana Rowland as Managing Director in Orange County

San Diego, Calif., November 26, 2018 – Bank of Southern California, N.A. (OTC Pink: BCAL), a community business bank headquartered in San Diego, has announced the appointment of Juliana Rowland as Managing Director in Orange County. She will be responsible for cultivating new client relationships for the Bank with a focus on Orange County’s business community. Bank of Southern California first entered the market in January 2018 with the opening of a production office in the city of Orange and plans to open a full-service branch early next year.

Mrs. Rowland brings nearly 14 years of banking experience, most recently serving as Business Banking Sales Manager, First Vice President for CommerceWest Bank in Irvine. She holds a bachelor’s degree from the University of Texas.

“Juliana will be a great asset to our experienced business banking group. Her expertise, leadership, and commitment to the business community will be a valuable resource to both our team and clients,” said Tony DiVita, Executive Vice President and Chief Banking Officer. “We look forward to Juliana’s contributions as Bank of Southern California continues to build upon its success and realize additional growth opportunities in Orange County,” concluded DiVita.
