

Bank of Southern California Names Soly Cangarlu Vice President, Branch Manager

San Diego, Calif., September 4, 2018 – Bank of Southern California, N.A. (OTC Pink: BCAL), a community business bank headquartered in San Diego, has named Soly Cangarlu Vice President, Branch Manager. She will be responsible for developing client relationships and expanding the bank’s presence in West Los Angeles. Currently, the bank is in the process of identifying a de-novo branch location which will become the bank’s West Los Angeles branch. This will be Bank of Southern California’s fifth location in Los Angeles County, further demonstrating the company’s commitment to serving this vibrant and important Southern California market.

Mrs. Cangarlu is an accomplished and seasoned banking professional with more than 30 years’ experience in the banking industry and deep roots in the Los Angeles market. Prior to joining Bank of Southern California, she served as the Vice President, Branch Manager for a regional bank in Santa Monica where she was responsible for opening a de-novo office and transforming it into a top-producing branch. She holds a bachelor’s degree from California State University, Los Angeles.

“Soly brings extensive experience in developing and leading banking teams throughout Los Angeles County and will play a key role in supporting our continued growth as we further our expansion in the Los Angeles region,” said Nathan Rogge, President and Chief Executive Officer. “Soly’s expertise and proven leadership is a great addition to Bank of Southern California’s newly expanded branch banking team,” concluded Rogge.
