

Bank of Southern California Announces Senior Vice President Promotions

San Diego, October 22, 2018 – Bank of Southern California, N.A. (OTC Pink: BCAL), a community business bank headquartered in San Diego, CA., announced the promotions of Margaret Rheinwald to Senior Vice President, Controller and Sharokin Badal to Senior Vice President, Treasury Services. The promotions reflect their years of service with the bank and their meaningful contributions to support the company’s ongoing growth and expansion.

Margaret Rheinwald – Senior Vice President, Controller

Ms. Rheinwald joined Bank of Southern California in 2014 as Vice President, Controller with nearly fifteen years of accounting and finance experience in the banking industry. She has been successful in leading and managing an efficient Finance and Accounting Department and has played a significant role in supporting the bank’s strategic M&A goals.

Sharokin Badal – Senior Vice President, Treasury Services

Mr. Badal joined the company in 2008 as Vice President, Cash Management Officer with more than eleven years of industry experience. He has been instrumental in developing a suite of competitive treasury products to meet the needs of businesses. He also has assembled a team of key personnel to support the digital banking and treasury needs of Bank of Southern California clients.

“I am pleased to recognize these individuals and the contributions they have made to support the company’s continuous growth and expansion,” said Nathan Rogge, President and CEO of Bank of Southern California. “They have both demonstrated strong leadership and management of their respective departments and I am confident they will continue to drive high performing results for Bank of Southern California,” Rogge added.
